Department Profile: (a brief description max 100 words)

The St. George's Advanced Patient Simulation Centre (GAPS) at St George's Hospital is an inter-professional training facility using simulation to help healthcare teams reach their full potential. Operating for almost 20 years, GAPS facilities include two high-fidelity simulation suites, a dedicated skills lab, part-task trainers, and dental and surgery units. We also have fully mobile systems to provide high-fidelity in-situ training. GAPS offers a diverse portfolio of in-house and external programmes tailored to a range of clinical themes, focusing on inter-professional and multi-disciplinary training that reflects the full scope of our clinical services.
