

Recommended Reading List for candidates preparing for the European Diploma in Anaesthesiology and Intensive Care

The following list of recommended reading is only a part of the preparation for EDAIC. Apart from books and websites, candidates should be familiar with actual guidelines and recommendations. Society membership gives you the advantage of being able to access relevant journals. Experience and practice gained during the training syllabus also represent indispensable knowledge for the exam. The amalgamation of all these theoretical and practical skills will help you achieve the desired result.
